DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 15-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by or , in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Morrow et al (20020173388). Morrow discloses a throat for receiving a handle; a scoop distal from the throat; a pair of sidewalls extending from the throat to the scoop, each sidewall having an inner edge, an outer edge, a length, an upper portion, a middle portion below the upper portion, and a lower portion below the middle portion, the pair of sidewalls separated by a distance; and wherein a portion of the length of the inner edge of each sidewall convexes inwardly toward the opposing sidewall and said portion of the length of the inner edge of each sidewall is convex toward the opposing sidewall from the upper portion to the middle portion and from the lower portion to the middle portion (fig 3, paragraph 27-last 3 sentences). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have selected any one of several equivalent sidewall designs including a convex sidewall based on cost, design and marketing considerations. The specification provides no unexpected or surprising results in using a convex sidewall as claimed.

As to claim 16 : Morrow discloses curved sidewalls (fig 3).

As to claim 17 : Morrow discloses varying curvature along the length of the sidewalls (fig 3, paragraph 27,28).

As to claim 18 : Morrow discloses an upper portion larger than a middle portion (fig 3).

As to claim 19 : Morrow discloses an lower portion larger than a middle portion (fig 3).

As to claim 20 : Morrow discloses a distance greater at the upper portion than the middle portion (fig 3, paragraph 27,28,31).

As to claim 21 : Morrow discloses a distance greater at the lower portion than the middle portion (fig 3). A convex shaped cross section would naturally have a distance greater at the lower portion than the middle portion

As to claim 22 : See claim 15 rejection.

As to claim 23 : See claim 15 rejection.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 15-23 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
